

QUILL FALCON CYCLONE 120

The Quill Falcon Cyclone 120 is a flexible and versatile mobile wet abrasive blasting machine. It offers considerable blasting power, yet at the same time is very portable even with a full load of water and blast media. Equally at home on both large and small projects, the Quill Falcon Cyclone 120 is used in a wide variety of industries and applications, including shipping, line marking removal, and brick and stone restoration. With a 120 litre capacity, the Quill Falcon Cyclone 120 offers up to 8 hours of uninterrupted blasting, meaning less downtime and greater operating efficiency.
